

press release

December 30, 2005

Trilogy Solutions Announces Third Quarter 2005 Financial Earnings

Trilogy Solutions, LLC, a Cranbury, New Jersey based HP enterprise authorized channel partner and provider of design, implementation and IT consulting services, is pleased to announce earnings of $127,000 for the quarter ended September 30, 2005. 2005 represents the Company's first full calendar year of operations.

Jeff Liebenthal, President of Trilogy Solutions, commented, "We are delighted that our company has turned a strong profit in such a short period of time. We are in our infancy and are investing for the growth of Trilogy Solutions. We have recently added to our sales staff and back office and are actively recruiting for additional sales and technical personnel. Our server, storage, and consulting revenues are all strong and we are most optimistic about the future of the company."

Trilogy Solutions is a majority owned subsidiary of Trilogy Systems (sole shareholder of Trilogy Leasing Co., LLC). The company is privately held but will continue to provide earnings information and other important updates through its website and press releases.