Trilogy Solutions Announces Management Changes Mark Darlington Becomes Chief Technology Officer Katherine Edwards Joins As Chief Operating Officer

CRANBURY, NJ, July 8, 2009 -- Trilogy Solutions, LLC, a division of Trilogy Systems, announces the following management changes:

- Mark Darlington will lead all technology efforts for Trilogy as our new Chief Technology Officer. Mark, Trilogy Solutions previous COO, will continue to be our technology visionary, will have our technical personnel/consultants reporting to him and will have our IT department reporting to him on a dotted line basis.
- Katherine Edwards joins Trilogy Solutions as our new Chief Operating Officer. Katherine will be responsible for Sales & Marketing for Trilogy Solutions as well as dotted line responsibility for Administration functions. Previously, Katherine was the COO of Comport Consulting. While at Comport, Katherine helped guide them from a $1M reseller to a $40M company. Katherine brings a wealth of experience in our industry as well as strong customer and partner relationships.

“Trilogy Solutions is continuing to grow and expand the strength of our team. The addition of Katherine will bring another seasoned IT executive to lead and grow our business. At the same time, allowing Mark to focus on solving our clients’ technology needs,” said Jeffrey Liebenthal, President and Chief Executive Officer of Trilogy Solutions.
